CLINICAL STAFF QUALIFICATIONS

Tallahassee Memorial has a regional network of highly qualified employee assistance, mental health, and addiction professionals. The following staff provides clinical services in the Tallahassee and surrounding area.

Judy T. Bailey Morgan, PhD, has an extensive behavioral health background. She currently has her PhD in industrial and organizational psychology and is a licensed professional counselor in Georgia. She has worked in management consulting, private practice, human resources management, and in various leadership positions at different behavioral health organizations. Dr. Bailey Morgan is passionate about EAP work and looks forward to continuing to expand Tallahassee Memorial Healthcare's EAP program to help the community.

Marcia Hilty, LCSW, is a Licensed Clinical Social Worker. During her long professional career, she has worked with both children and adults in inpatient, outpatient, and long-term residential settings. Prior to joining Tallahassee Memorial Hospital's Employee Assistance Program, she was the Circuit Director of the Guardian ad Litem Organization, an entity that advocates for abused and neglected children whose cases are involved with the courts, in both the Second and Fifth Judicial Circuits.

Marcia earned her master's degree in clinical social work from Michigan State University and completed the Washington School of Psychiatry's two-year child and adolescent psychotherapy certificate program, while living and working in the Washington DC area.

Josie Rosenberg, LMFT, CEAP is a licensed Marriage and Family Therapist experienced in treating adults, families, and adolescents. She has her master's degree in Family and Developmental Science from Colorado State University in Fort Collins, Colorado. Josie is trained in Eye Movement Desensitization and Reprocessing (EMDR), an evidence-based trauma treatment. She grew up in Tallahassee and moved back home after living in Colorado and practicing psychotherapy there for over 10 years.
